

Prices never fall, because the State buys what isn't wanted, with tax money.

If we exhaust a field
we get a grant for leaving it to recover.

And our Storage Division gets tax money for storing all the unwanted food.

And surplus food stocks can be sent to the hungry.

